

Pairwise relationships among relative IOD, nucleus area, and cell area

Points are species estimates; bars are 95% bootstrap intervals conditional on the frozen image and selected-cell panels. Lines are descriptive least-squares fits.

IOD includes nuclear area algebraically, the size traits are upper-tail top-50 estimands, and these correlations are not phylogenetically corrected.