

Pairwise relationships among genome size, nucleus area, and cell area

Points are species estimates; bars are 95% bootstrap intervals conditional on the frozen image and selected-cell panels. Genome size is calibrated to D. fuscus = 16.36 pg.

Genome estimates are scaled from nuclear IOD, which includes nuclear area algebraically; size traits are top-50 estimands and correlations are not phylogenetically corrected.